- The Match of the Week in round 13 involves two of the four teams that battle for the three remaining play-off places in EHF Champions League group A.
- FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria and Brest Bretagne Handball are on 11 points; SG BBM Bietigheim and Krim Mercator Ljubljana have 10 points.
- FTC travel to Odense Håndbold in the final round while Bietigheim host DHK Baník Most; Krim and Brest both play against Vipers Kristiansand and CSM Bucuresti in the last two rounds.
- Bietigheim aim for their second play-off berth; FTC played the quarter-finals in four straight seasons (2016-19) but have not made it to the EHF FINAL4 yet.
- FTC won two of their last six group matches, against Krim and Most; Bietigheim earned one point (a draw with Brest) from their last seven CL matches.
- Bietigheim took two of their three biggest CL wins against FTC: 40:20 in the reverse fixture in September and 35:24 in the 2020/21 season; their only bigger win was 46:23 against Most earlier this season.
- Bietigheim's Hungarian goalkeeper Melinda Szikora played for FTC in 2013-19; she was named Player of the Match after the teams met in September.
- That 40:20 in Germany was FTC's biggest ever CL defeat, which even beat the 40:23 drubbing by their domestic rivals Györi Audi ETO KC in 2016.
- FTC have two German internationals in their squad: Emily Bölk and Alicia Stolle; the latter has just returned after fracturing her hand in October.
- With 55 goals, Bölk is FTC's second-best scorer this season, behind Katrin Klujber (78); Klujber is back after missing the game against Brest in round 12.
- Centre back Anikó Cirjenics-Kovacsics played her first game for FTC in 668 days last Saturday, returning from a shoulder injury and maternity leave.
- FTC include one former Bietigheim player: Angela Malestein, who has scored 47 times so far this season.
- Malestein will face fellow Dutch internationals Inger Smits and Kelly Dulfer; a third Dutch Bietigheim player, Danick Snelder, is out with a knee injury.
- Bietigheim's Markus Gaugisch is also coaching the German national team; he will leave the club after the season to fully focus on his national team duties.
- Injury report – FTC: Anett Kovács, Béatrice Edwige (both knee injury); Bietigheim: Danick Snelder, Antje Döll (both knee injury).
