Dear Handball Friends,

In 1996 the European top handball players, referees and officials had to cope with an enormously intensive programme, consisting of Olympic Games, four European Championship Final Rounds and various qualifications.

At the same time handball itself has considerably improved both its image and value. Home and away matches in National Team Competitions as well as in the European Cup guaranteed a great number of dramatic matches, self-governed by a triangle consisting of the excitement of our sport, the spectators and the media. There is, however, a winner from this triangle, namely handball.

Both the functionaries and staff members of the European Handball Federation have done their best to fulfil their tasks for handball. The task management of EHF is based on a harmonious co-operation between the elected Commission Members and the full-time EHF Office Staff Members. All structural decisions of the EHF Committee are implemented by the Technical Commissions and administratively carried-out by the EHF Staff Members in their daily work.

This year our future course was determined and agreed upon. At the 1996 EHF and IHF Congresses the people that should lead handball into the 3rd millenium were elected and their tasks defined.

Our 1996 Annual Report is to provide you with an overview of the activities in European Handball in 1996. We can assure you that in 1997 the efforts of EHF to further develop handball will not only be maintained, but extended. Therefore the motto of all of us should be

"Handball in Europe - Go for it !"

ATTRACTIVENESS OF HANDBALL

The EHF Project "Attractiveness of Handball" was set-up in 1995 as an EHF contribution to the IHF "Brainstorming Group", dealing with the further development of handball. The EHF Committee Member Tor Lian / NOR presented the EHF / NRK video "The Beautiful Game Handball" as well as the project folder to the 1996 EHF Congress in Athens and provided the participants with copies of the publications.

Today, show & entertainment are important features of any sport, therefore its attractiveness must be enhanced both for spectators in the hall and TV audiences. Rule issues as well as technical facilities must be dealt with (lighting, cameras, audio equipment). At the same time it must be borne in mind that empty halls make TV matches unattractive. A culture of handball must be developed. The conduct of players and officials must appeal to the emotions in a positive way. Children are an important target group of the project. They imitate their heroes and enjoy playing. It is particularly important to promote enjoyment of the game by providing balls to fit the size of children's hands.

On the occasion of the EHF Seminar "Women in Handball" the project was again presented by Tor Lian, particularly emphasizing further possibilities for developing Women's Handball in the future.

HANDBALL TV MAGAZINE

The 1996 EHF Congress decided to pass on the TV rights of European Competitions to EHF for secondary usage in a TV Magazine. Technical as well as financial questions will have to be clarified in this matter. The EHF will negotiate in detail with several TV Sport Channels with a Europe-wide range of transmission in order to further develop the idea of a European Handball TV Magazine.

EHF VOLUNTEERS' SYSTEM

The EHF installed a Volunteers' system with the intention of giving to full staff members of the national member federations the possibility to stay in Vienna and work for a short period in the EHF-Office. The aim of these stays is to enable a mutual information exchange and to make further co-operation easier. Maria Nikolova/BUL was the first volunteer in 1995 and with the presence of Doru Simion/ROM (25.2.-1.3.96), Gennadi Ocheretin/RUS (3.-8.3.96) as well as Marko Saaret/EST (19.-26.10.96) this system was succesfully continued in 1996.

EHF Seminar "Women in Handball"

October 4th - 6th, 1996

Vienna / AUT

*"Despite growing participation of women in sport in recent years and increased opportunities for women to participate in domestic and international arenas, increased representation of women in decision making and leadership roles within sport has not followed."
(The Brighton Declaration on Women and Sport, Brighton May 8th, 1994).*

EHF agreed upon a Women's Activity Plan at the Congress 1996. The basis for the implementation of this plan is the first seminar "Women in Handball" held from October 4th - 6th, 1996 in order to improve the position of women and to increase the presence of female representatives in the various fields of international Handball. Women coaches, referees and functionaries from 11 different Member Federations contributed with their knowledge and experiences. Over 1 1/2 days a wide range of proposals were forwarded to push ahead the full involvement of women in every aspect of handball.

EHF INFO SYSTEM

Results of matches can be entered into the EHF data base directly by tele-phone. This will be the basis for actual information that clubs and Federations as well as media representatives can be provided with.

INTERNET

The EHF Info System is now the basis for all address guides (blue book and green book). The result prints (EC, ECh, WCh) are also based on the data from the Info System. The result of the draws will be directly put into the system.

IHF to receive information from the internet. EHF homepage will be a subdirectory of the IHF homepage. Direct modem connection between IHF and EHF is not planned at the moment.

National Federations can receive information from the internet as well as directly via modem from the EHF server. Quantity and quality of information also rely on discipline when entering data.

Information on all competitions as well as previews for big events will also available to EHF partners, private users and media representatives. The automatic update of the database shall ensure top actuality in the various fields of handball. The quality of information will improve as more National Federations and clubs use the Info system to insert match results.

International Transfer

The main aims concerning International Transfers within Europe 1996

- The Elaboration of a practicable EHF Procedure for Transfers based on a co-operation with the EHF Member Federations.
- Proposals for and co-operation in working out new IHF Transfer Regulations
- Supervision of all International Transfers within Europe, Information and counselling of the Member Federations in Transfer Procedure
- Filing of all Transfer documents and registration of all contract players from EHF Member Federations as a basis for future Transfers.

Publication:

EHF Project "Mini-handball"

The EHF Project "Mini-handball" initiated by EHF in 1993 will be continued and shall be aimed at the support of national activities in the EHF Member Federations. Lecturer Nominations as well as the ball support by EHF were still the main areas of co-operation between the EHF and the National Federations in 1996 ( compare the survey of activities in the EHF Development Project ! ).

A new input of ideas in order to develop further strategies was the aim of the EHF Workshop Group "Mini-handball" in the 1996 EHF Lecturers' Course in Alanya / TUR ( compare seminar report ! ).

"The Staircase to Handball" is the name of the EHF concept worked out by the experts in this group and considered to be a kind of frame work recommendation concerning the children's access to handball. This concept is being elaborated on and shall be published officially by EHF in 1997. The same holds true for the EHF Brochure "Basic Handball", a leaflet closely related to the EHF Video "Basic Handball" already published in 1996 at the EHF Congress.

Further steps have been taken towards an external production of a cinema movie called "The Adventures of the Mini Winnies", to be produced as a joint venture of an Australian and German Producing Company. A possible date for finalizing this project could be the end of 1997.
